Vintage Fund Management and Management Acquire Avioserv San Diego, Inc.

Los Angeles, CA – Vintage Fund Management (“Vintage”) announced today the closing of its $8 million investment in Avioserv San Diego, Inc. (“Avioserv”).

Headquartered in San Diego, Avioserv is a leading international provider of commercial aircraft engine products and services to the aircraft engine aftermarket. The Company specializes in the sale, lease, and exchange of airframe components, engine parts, engine modules, engine components, whole engines, and accessories and also provides consignment sales and engine, material, and inventory management services. The Company’s breadth of value-add capabilities and services, coupled with its reputation for delivering parts on time with the proper documentation and customer service, have enabled strong, long-standing relationships with its customers, who are the industry’s leading airlines, airline repair facilities, maintenance, repair, and overhaul (“MRO”) centers, and engine components dealers and brokers. Avioserv has been an accredited member of the Aviation Suppliers Association (“ASA”) since 1997 and is continually audited by its customers, routinely exceeding requirements for process, quality and safety.

Henry Brandon, Managing Director of Vintage Fund Management, states, “We are extremely pleased to invest alongside the talented Avioserv management team in order to build upon their history of success and position the company for further growth.” Thomas Gehring, CEO of Avioserv, says, “We are very excited to have Vintage Fund Management involved with the company. Their investment and support will assist in the company’s growth strategy as we continue to expand our leadership position in the attractive aircraft engine aftermarket.”

Vintage Fund Management is a private equity firm headquartered in Los Angeles that executes structured investments to facilitate growth, recapitalization, restructuring, and buyouts that support successful middle-market business owners.
